DR PETER FARRELL JOINS PHARMAXIS BOARD

Specialist pharmaceutical company Pharmaxis Ltd (ASX:PXS, NASDAQ:PXSL) announced today that Peter C Farrell, AM, PhD, DSc has accepted an invitation to join the Pharmaxis board of directors. Dr Farrell is founding Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of ResMed Inc. (NYSE: RMD, AXS: RMD), a company that develops treatment devices for sleep-disordered breathing and respiratory failure.

Dr Farrell holds bachelor and masters degrees in chemical engineering from University of Sydney and Massachusetts Institute of Technology, a PhD in bioengineering from the University of Washington, Seattle and a Doctor of Science from the University of New South Wales for research related to dialysis and renal medicine. He has published over 150 papers covering a broad range of subjects from engineering applications in medicine to focusing technology to meet business objectives. He currently serves as Vice Chairman of the Executive Council for the Harvard Medical School Division of Sleep Medicine and in 2005, he was named the US Entrepreneur of the Year for Health Sciences.

In welcoming Dr Farrell to the Board, Alan Robertson, Pharmaxis chief executive officer said: 'Peter's experience in developing Australian based technology from initial research through to a significant and successful global corporation will be invaluable as Pharmaxis builds a global, research based pharmaceutical business. I look forward to Peter's contribution to the Company'.

Dr Farrell stated: "I have spent most of my career growing businesses in the health care sector. When a company such as Pharmaxis demonstrates the ability to address significant clinical needs, I believe it is important for the community that it be supported to ensure it is successful."
